DAMA International BYLAWS

I. INTRODUCTION

This volume contains the bylaws that are used to operate the DAMA International organization.

Each Board Member must use this information in conducting the business of DAMA International in their respective positions. It is intended to provide the background information new board members need to serve as a board member and to highlight changes that have occurred to the bylaws during the existence of DAMA International. DAMA International affiliates shall abide by pertinent DAMA International bylaws requirements.

II. DAMA INTERNATIONAL MISSION, VISION, PURPOSE AND GOALS

1. Mission: DAMA International is a not-for-profit, vendor-independent,¹ global association of technical and business professionals dedicated to advancing the concepts and practices of information and data management
2. Vision: DAMA International's vision is to be an essential resource to those who engage in information and data management
3. Purpose: DAMA International's primary purpose is to promote the understanding, development and practice of managing data and information as key enterprise assets to support the organization
4. Goals: DAMA International's goals are to:
 - a. Help practitioners become more knowledgeable and skilled in the information and data management profession
 - b. Influence practices, education and certification in the information and data management profession
 - c. Support DAMA members and their organizations to address their information and data management needs
 - d. Form alliances with other organizations with similar principles to strengthen the profession

III. ORGANIZATIONAL STRUCTURE

DAMA International is composed of the following bodies:

1. The Board of Directors
2. The Presidents' Council
3. The Board of Advisors

¹ In this context, "vendor" indicates any provider of data management goods or services to DAMA International members or potential members and their employers. This use of the term is not to be confused with the term "vendor to DAMA" used elsewhere in this document.

4. DAMA Chapters: a chapter is a DAMA International organizational unit consisting of DAMA members created to bring Data Management education and networking to a specific community (a geographic location, a data management discipline or an industry or industrial sector). These chapters are formed by members or prospective members as outlined below.
 - a. Affiliates: an affiliate is an independent legal entity that: (a) is legally registered as not-for-profit organization; (b) is vendor² independent; (c) was chartered or incorporated to establish or promote data administration or information resource management; and, (d) has an affiliation agreement with DAMA International There are two kinds of affiliates:
 - b. Chapter is a DAMA International Affiliate that was chartered or incorporated with the express purpose of being a chapter of DAMA International, organized to bring Data Management education and professional networking to a specific community
 - c. Strategic Partner (or non-Chapter Affiliate) is an organization that was chartered or incorporated with a stated purpose related to data management, but separate from DAMA International. At some point, this separate organization established an affiliation agreement with DAMA International to improve its service to its members and the members of DAMA International through an alliance with DAMA International

IV.N Ex Officio Officers: Others

An Ex Officio Officer is an individual who is appointed by a separate organization to represent that organization to DAMA International. These officers are required to attend a minimum of three DAMA International Board meetings per year and serve for a term of 2 years.

Roles and responsibilities:

1. Serve on the DAMA International Board on behalf of the appointing organization as a non-voting member
2. Provide regular communication to the appointing organization
3. Be a member in good standing of the appointing organization
4. Maintain proper attendance at board meetings
5. Sign annually and adhere to the DAMA International Code of Ethics

IV.O Board of Directors: Shadow

A Board of Directors Shadow is an individual who is appointed by the President with approval of the Board of Directors to provide support to an assigned VP position.

1. Provides support for all responsibilities of the assigned VP position.
2. Must be approved by a majority of the voting Board of Directors.
3. Must be or have been a DAMA Chapter board member.
4. Shadow is not eligible to vote for the assigned VP position at Board of Directors' meetings unless directed in writing by the Shadow's assigned VP.
5. Shadow term of service is at the discretion of the assigned VP and Board of Directors but cannot exceed two (2) years.
6. Shadow must sign annually and adhere to the DAMA International Code of Ethics.
7. Shadow may be nominated to the full position on the Board of Directors at the end of term for assigned VP or other VP position but is not eligible to run for the position of President

V. OFFICERS AS MEMBERS OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

V.A Membership on the Board of Directors

Membership on the Board of Directors includes any elected, appointed or nominated role, including: President, Past President, all Vice Presidents, Board of Directors Shadow, Presidents' Council Chairperson, the Governance & Ethics Officer, all Ex Officio Officers, and all Advisors, as well as any other elected, appointed or nominated role, as defined by the Board of Directors, who regularly attends Board of Directors meetings and/or has access to Board of Directors' confidential information (including minutes) and/or decisions.

All members of the Board of Directors will be considered "Officers" of the Association and shall be held to all the duties and requirements thereof, and shall be required sign annually and adhere to, both the Code of Ethics and the Conflict of Interest Statement, as well as a Non-Disclosure Agreement, if applicable. Each Officer must also be and remain a DAMA International member in good standing, as well as a member in good standing of their respective DAMA chapter, if applicable, throughout his or her term of office, through payment of membership dues and fulfillment of any other stated membership responsibilities.

All Officers must also provide valid contact information to be use in the course of any and all DAMA-related business.

V.B Term of Office

Each Officer, whether elected, appointed or nominated, shall be expected to serve a minimum of one two-year term, and may be re-elected, re-appointed, or re-nominated, depending on the office, to no more than a total of three consecutive two-year terms for a single tour of office, as long as they continue to be a member in good standing and have successfully fulfilled all duties during their previous two-year term.

After fulfilling the maximum three consecutive two-year terms with a single office, the Officer must step down for a minimum of one two-year term, after which, they will be eligible to run for an additional tour of the same office, subject to another maximum of three consecutive two-year terms. During this "bye" term, the Officer is eligible to serve any office for which they are qualified, except the office for which they just served three two-year terms.

In filling vacancies for unexpired terms, an officer who has served more than half a term in an office (i.e. at least one full year) is considered to have served a full term. In other words, an interim appointment of more than one year will be calculated the same as having served one two-year term. An interim appointment of less than one year will be calculated the same as having not served, allowing the Officer to be elected or re-appointed for a maximum of three consecutive two-year terms.

Members may be re-elected, re-appointed, or re-nominated to any office they have previously held, but only if the position has not been held for more than the past five years, to include an interim appointment of at least one full year, with the exception of a Lifetime Advisor, whose position has no expiration.

The President will automatically assume the office of Past President at the end of their service. Past Presidents may be elected to other Board positions after their term as Past President has been served.

If an individual has served the maximum number of term limits and there is no one to take over the office, including President, with the Board of Directors’ approval and majority vote of voting officers, the incumbent may continue to hold the office until such time as a replacement can be found.

All members of the Board of Directors serve two-year terms, except for the Past President, who automatically serves until there is a new Past President to inherit the title and position.

Elections, appointments, and nominations for all offices will be staggered, as follows:

Odd Year Elections & Appointments (Term begins January 1 of even year)	Even Year Elections & Appointment (Term begins January 1 of odd year)
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • VP Chapter Services • VP Conference Services • VP Marketing/Communications • VP Operations • VP Professional Development • President’s Council Chairperson⁴ 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Governance and Ethics Officer⁵ • VP Financial Services • VP Member Services • VP Online Services • President

ICCP Directors will be appointed for two-year terms. Their terms will run concurrently and be aligned with the ICCP Executive Board of Directors’ elections.

Ex Officio Officers will be appointed by the appointing organization for two-year terms.

V.C Calendar Term

Each Officer’s term of office will begin January 1.

V.D Removal from Office

For any cause, an Officer may be removed from office by a two-thirds vote by the voting Officers of the Board of Directors (exclusive of the Past President and the Officer in question). Causes that may precipitate such action include but are not limited to:

1. Violation of ethical standards, including failure to sign the Code of Ethics and/or the Conflict of Interest Statement, as well as a Non-Disclosure Agreement, if applicable;
2. Non-performance of the duties of their office;
3. Violation of federal, state or local laws; or
4. Other reasonable causes (as determined by a majority vote of the remaining voting Officers)

⁴ The Presidents’ Council Chairperson will be elected by the DAMA Chapter Presidents’ Council for a two-year term starting on January 1.

⁵ In this context, “vendor” indicates any provider of data management goods or services to DAMA International members or potential members and their employers. This use of the term is not to be confused with the term “vendor to DAMA” used elsewhere in this document.

V.E Mid-Term Vacancy of Board Position

A vacancy in a position on the DAMA International Board of Directors will be filled by appointment as determined by majority vote of the DAMA International Board of Directors. The individual filling the mid-term vacancy will hold that position only for the remainder of the 2-year term and until the regularly scheduled election for Board of Directors occurs. If the individual appointed to fill the vacant position serves for at least one full year, they will be considered to have served a full two-year term of office for term of office purposes.

V.F Officer Position Changes

Officer positions may be added, removed or changed by revision to the By-laws, review by the Executive Committee, and majority vote by the entire voting-eligible Board of Directors.

VI. ELECTION OF MEMBERSHIP TO THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

VI.A Eligibility for Board of Directors Office

1. Candidate must currently be a member of DAMA International and a DAMA Chapter
2. Candidate must have served as a current or former officer of a DAMA Chapter for at least one full term of their chapter's term of office
3. Candidates for President of DAMA International must have served at least one term in another capacity on the DAMA International board
4. Candidates may NOT have any interest (e.g., ownership, employment, agent or representative) with any vendors providing services to DAMA International or any of its affiliates. Examples of vendor in this category include: conference management providers, administrative services providers, publishers of DAMA materials, internet and other information suppliers, and office goods suppliers. Examples of organizations not considered vendors under this policy include: organizations that provide products and services directly to DAMA members and their employers, conference and other event sponsors, grantors to the foundation, etc.
5. Candidates must be prepared to make a serious commitment in time, energy and money. They must be able to maintain proper attendance at board meetings, with expenses covered by the candidate's employer, affiliate or as approved by DAMA International
6. No more than two Officers who originate from the same DAMA Chapter may share a term of office in common; the office of Past President is exempt from this rule
7. An elected officer who becomes ineligible during their term will vacate their office at a date determined by a majority vote of the Board of Directors

VI.B Nominations

1. The Past President serves as chairperson of the Nominating / Elections Committee. Should the Past President be unable to serve in this role, the Board of Directors will appoint a substitute to administer the election

2. The Nominating / Elections Committee will publish at least 30 days prior to the first milestone, the annual Election Calendar indicating the dates for all election milestones for the upcoming election
3. The Nominating / Elections Committee will commence soliciting nominations from the DAMA International Chapters as indicated in the Election Calendar
4. The Nominating / Elections Committee will certify the nominee's eligibility
5. A nominee may seek a maximum of one office in any one election
6. Any member of the Board of Directors who wishes to run for another office does not have to resign their current position until they are elected to a new position. If they are elected to a new position, the President will appoint a person to fill the vacancy.
7. The election administrator must receive nominations by the deadline as published in the Election Calendar
8. If no nominations are received from the DAMA Chapters, the Board of Directors will seek volunteers to fill the open positions. Exercising this clause may require waving the restriction(s) to Board membership defined in Section VI.A #1 and/or #2 (eligibility for Board of Directors office)

VI.C Balloting Section

1. If there are no contested positions, (positions for which more than one person is nominated), no balloting is required. The nominee will automatically take office the following January 1
2. If more than one nomination for a position is received, the choice among nominees will be put to a vote of the DAMA Chapters as follows
 - a. If all positions, a ballot showing all nominees, their affiliation membership and a short profile, will be mailed to each DAMA Chapter President or their designated representative on or before the date indicated in the Election Calendar for distribution to the DAMA members
 - b. Each DAMA Chapter may submit only one ballot, signed by the DAMA Chapter President (or stated designate) and dated appropriately
 - c. To be valid, all ballots must be returned to the nominating / elections committee by the indicated date in the Election Calendar
 - d. Ballot counts will be certified by the chairperson of the nominating / elections committee in conjunction with either one other member of the committee or a person authorized by a majority vote of the committee
 - e. The winner of each position will be that nominee receiving a majority of the votes cast for that position
 - f. In case of a tie, the winner will be determined by majority vote of all elected Officers
3. Any office that is left vacant after the election process will be filled by appointment by the elected Board of Directors. Exercising this clause may require waiving the restriction to Board membership defined in section V.A.#1 and/or #2

4. If three or more newly elected Officers are from the same DAMA Chapter, only those Officers elected to the two offices with higher preference are eligible to serve. The office of Past President is not included in this situation. This situation will be resolved as follows:
 - a. The office of President will be determined first by simple majority vote. In case of a tie, the winner will be determined by majority vote of all elected Officers
 - b. The remaining offices will be determined in like manner in descending preference order until all offices are filled
 - c. If a third nominee for an office is a member of the same DAMA Chapter as two previously declared winners, that nominee is ineligible, regardless of the number of votes received
5. For election purposes, the precedence of offices will be as follows:
 - a. President
 - b. Vice President, Member Services
 - c. Vice President, Chapter Services
 - d. Vice President, Conference Services
 - e. Vice President, Professional Development
 - f. Vice President, Finance (Treasurer)
 - g. Vice President, Operations
 - h. Vice President, Marketing & Communications
 - i. Vice President, Online Services

The incoming President of the Board of Directors will announce the composition of the Board of Directors within two weeks after the first Board of Director's meeting. At that time a communication showing all board members' names, their affiliation membership and a short profile of each officer will be mailed to each DAMA Chapter President or their designated representative

VII. INDEMNIFICATION OF DIRECTORS AND OFFICERS

VII.A Right to Indemnification

Based on legal and regulatory rules, each person who was, or is, threatened to be made a party to any actual or threatened action, suit, or proceeding, whether civil or criminal by reason of the fact that he or she is, or was, a Director or Officer of DAMA International, shall be indemnified and held harmless by DAMA International to the full extent permitted by applicable law as then in effect against all expense, liability, and loss including attorneys' fees, judgments, fines, and penalties actually and reasonably incurred by such person, and such indemnification shall continue to a person who has ceased to be a Director or Officer and shall inure to the benefit of his or her heirs, executors, and administrators; provided that with respect to proceedings to enforce the right of indemnification, DAMA International shall indemnify only if such proceeding was authorized by the Board of Directors of DAMA International. The Board of Directors may authorize payment in advance to a Director or Officer for expenses incurred in defending a proceeding provided that the Director or Officer seeking payment provides to the Board of Directors in advance of the final disposition of said proceeding an undertaking to repay all amounts so advanced if said Director or Officer shall ultimately be determined not entitled to be indemnified.

VII.B Non-Exclusivity

The right to indemnification and payment of expenses shall not be exclusive of any other right that any person may have or hereafter acquire under any statute or rule of law.

VII.C Insurance

In the United States, only, DAMA International may, within the discretion of the Board of Directors, maintain insurance at its expense to protect the DAMA-I Board of Directors and Officers.
